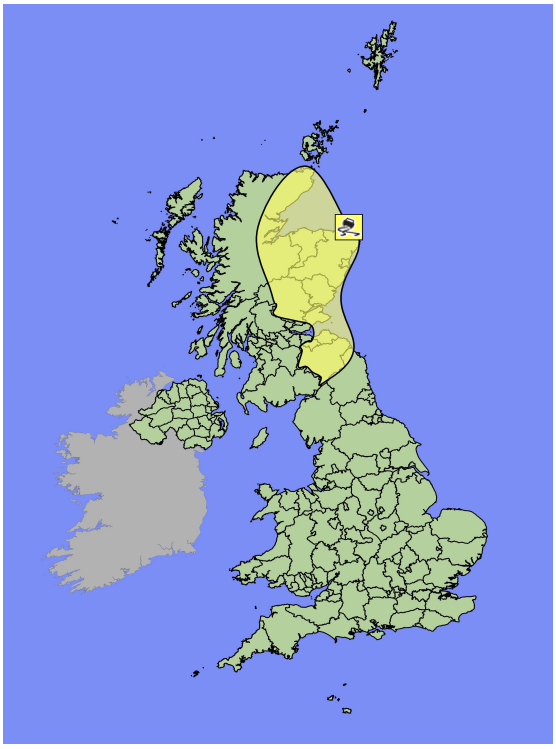
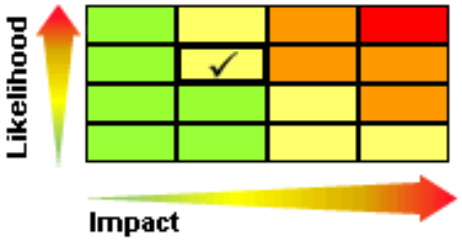
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
After mild conditions to start New Year's Eve, colder air will sweep south. Temperatures on paved surfaces will drop quite quickly during the evening, allowing icy patches to form quite quickly.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 20:00 on Mon, 31st Dec 2012 until 10:00 on Tue, 01st Jan 2013

Icy patches will form where roads and pavements remain damp tonight. Additionally some showers of rain, sleet and hill snow will occur, especially across western parts of this region. The public are advised to be aware of the risk of slippery conditions on roads and pavements.
